Senior Class Officers

Caroline Keiper, T… …tary; Ronnie Hagquist, President; Dave Lucas, … …dent Council Representative.

About the Seniors

In 1947 we made our debut into high school with a lot of excitement and very much enthusiasm. We elected our class officers and under their capable leadership we sponsored a fine party for the entire high school. During this year, also, we initiated the idea of having a Freshman-Sophomore Hop.

In 1948 we came to school as Sophomores. Ronnie Hall was elected president of the class. During this year we sponsored an all high dance and also attended the second annual Freshman-Sophomore Hop.

Then in 1949 we came back as Juniors to begin our busiest year in high school. Caroline Keiper was elected editor of the Medinian and under her capable guidance we put out one of the best annuals ever for the senior class. Also during this year we chose our class rings, put on a big Junior Carnival, and had one of the best proms for the seniors ever attended in M.H.S.

In 1950 we started the last leg of our long but not tedious journey through M.H.S. This year saw some of the fellows in our class on the championship football team. Ronnie Haggquist, a newcomer from New York, was elected our president; Leonard Morse was elected student council president; and Mary Houseman was chosen homecoming queen with Barb Hess and LaRue Hamer as her attendants.

About the Juniors

The Junior class became Freshmen in the fall of 1948. We immediately made ourselves known by taking an active part in the activities and in the sports department.

We sponsored a number of very good parties for the high school. One of the best was when we helped to sponsor the Freshman-Sophomore Strut in 1950.

We had a very fine Junior carnival and we put on one of the best Jr. Sr.'s that Medina High School ever had.

This year we also received our class rings and published a fine annual.

About the Sophomores

We, the class of 1953, started our second term of our high school career on September 13, 1950. This makes us realize how very quickly a term can pass and we intend to enjoy every minute of our education and good times furnished for the rest of our years here at M. H. S. After the election of officers, we settled down to become better members of this school and to co-operate with the other classes and all the activities of this past year.

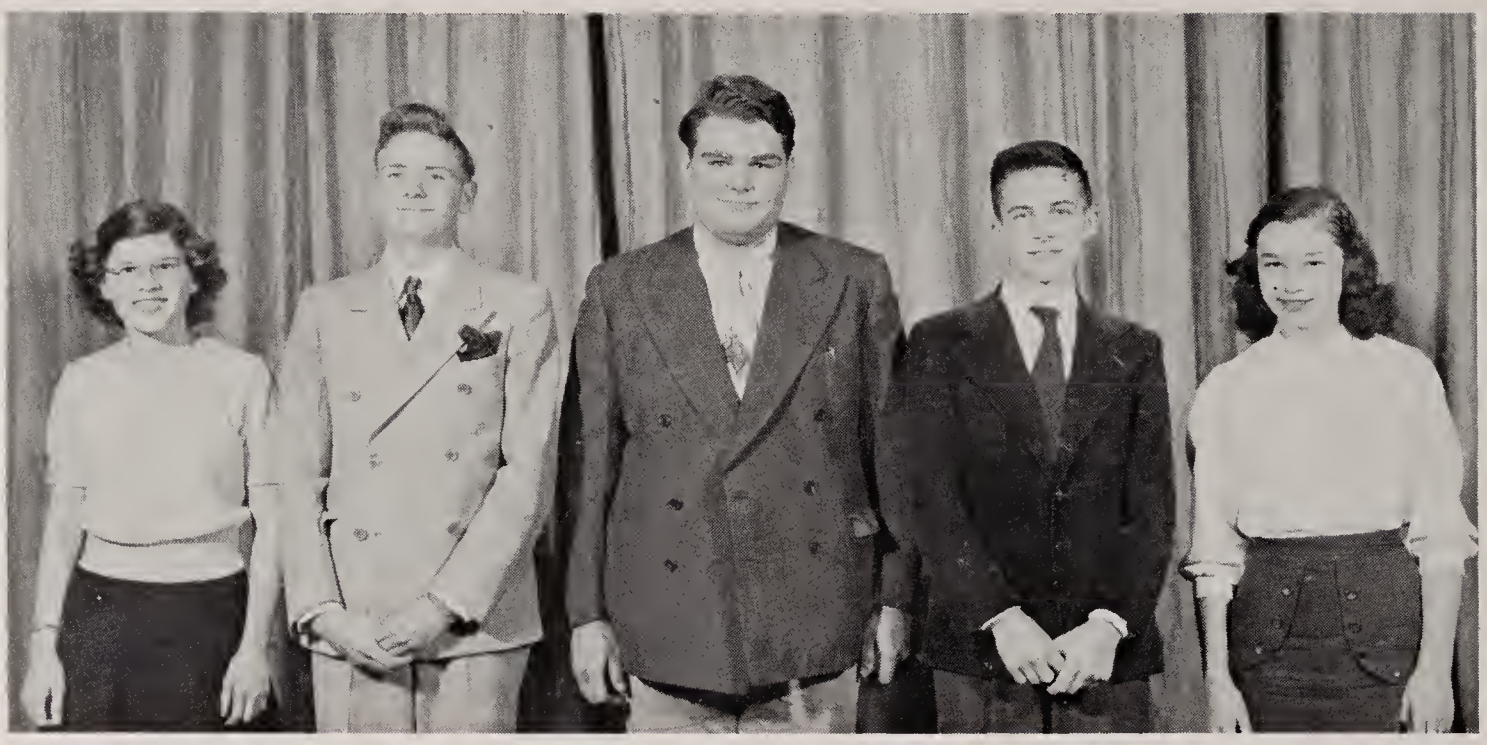
Freshman Class Officers



Sylvia Gibbs, student council representative; Darwin Smith, vice-president; Earl Beck, treasurer; Bill Golder, president; Eleanor Maple, secretary.

About the Freshmen

We, the class of '54, realize our ambition of becoming Medina High School students on September 13, 1950. Our first class meeting was held on September 15, and we elected Bill Golder president. Our members have already made their presence felt in many worthwhile activities M. H. S. offers, such as music, dramatics, and athletics.

We have already made plans for our first party, the "Freshman-Sophomore Hop." All of us hope to be a credit both scholastically and morally to M. H. S.

Homecoming

Attendant LaRue Hamer, Queen Mary Kay Houseman, Attendant Barbara Hess.

On September twenty-ninth, the co-captains had the annual shoulder tapping ceremony at which time Mary Kay Houseman was chosen queen and Barbara Hess and LaRue Hamer were her attendants. The girls wished the team luck in pep meeting and were rewarded with a victory over Rittman 16-6.

After the game, the queen was crowned by the student council president, then the royal court was escorted to the throne.

Everyone danced in a beautifully decorated gym with autumn leaves as the main theme.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1951, will the following to the underclassmen and anyone else to whom it may concern:

DICK BARRY wills his looks, talent, and ability to any younger classman with conceit enough to take them. JANET BARSIC wills her Latin Book II to any future Sophomore who has the courage to use it and Good Luck to you. ZENIA (SKIPPY) BOCHIN wills Miss Allen a case of beans to feed to her future basketball players so they can shoot the canaries. LOUISE BOHL and GRACE STROUSE will their ability to skip school and not get caught to anyone who will risk the chance. DAVE BRINE wills to any underclassman especially Neal Fisher, his ability to ride a motorcycle. MARY CASEY wills her ability of playing snare drums to Shirley Adams providing she can take it for four years as she did. FRANCES DULL wills not a thing but Chuck Abbott to any girl who takes good care of him in the future. PAT ELLIS wills her ability to not be able to get into a play until her senior year to any dramatic minded freshman. JAMES FRANTZ wills his height to Leo Gorfido. JEANNETTE FREESE wills the first seat in the second row in the senior homeroom to anyone who can stand to sit beside someone like Dick Barry for a whole year. SUSIE FRI wills her love for dramatics to Nancy Sheerlein. DAVE FRIEDMAN wills his faithful peasantry (Dick Barry) to anyone who can stand the job. RUTH GARDNER wills her well worn chair in Latin II to some up and coming Sophomore student. Since the GORFIDO'S have to keep things in the family, SAM leaves his quarterback position to his brother Leo and hopes that the team gets another champion. RONNIE HAGQUIST leaves his "flat clarinet" to his brother Skeet. To Walt Andrews and Bob Kozel, RONNIE HALL wills the luck he had in football. BOB HAMLIN wills the ability to play bass drum and all the fun he had in band to anyone willing to work for it. DICK HAMRIC wills his art ability to Gil Davenport if he thinks he needs it. BARBARA HESS wills her deepest love for Jerry Lester to Mr. Rudes. JIM HOLLINGER wills the fender that isn't there, to any daring Junior with money enough to add a car to it. MARY HOUSEMAN wills the honor of homecoming queen to some lucky Junior girl. VIRGINIA KAUFMAN wills the thrill of being a senior to her sister Marion who still has a long way to go. CAROLINE KEIPER wills her adoration of Mr. Rudes to Lynne Abrams. WILMA KLEE wills the advantages of being a Senior to her sister, Elsie, who still has a year of struggle before she can enjoy school. ED KOLVEREID wills his beat up civics book and third seat in the last row to any unfortunate person who has to struggle through civics for a semester. RUDY KOUBA wills his F. F. A. reporter's job to anyone who wants it. ED KUNGLI hereby turns over his magnificent, wonderful, outstanding, two fisted, handsome, well built, heroic, unmatchable, unconceited, sheikly, ultra-modern, Pulitzer winner, academy award winner, vivacious physique to anyone who could possibly call him a liar. HARRIET L'AMOUREAUX wills her ability to look interested in class while her mind is wandering to anyone who wants it. BEV LANGFORD wills her artistic ability to any underclassman who is lucky enough to get in art class. DON LEHMAN leaves physics class to any unsuspecting Junior. JIM LONGACRE wills his first chair baritone to Colyn Few. JOYCE McCONNELL wills her wish bone to anyone who can make use of it. PAT McFADDEN wills her first chair in band and Stardusters. DANNY MESSENGER leaves to anyone who sits in his seat in the Senior homeroom next year the gum that is on the front side. BUD MORLOCK wills his ability just to get by with his grades to Don Bankey. ELROY MORRISON wills his season's pass in the front row seat at the Roxy to Bob "Roxy Kid" Kungli. HELEN MORSE wills her appreciation for music to Mr. Claggett. LEONARD MORSE wills his fouling ability to a person who can do as well or better, Bob Palsha. BILL MUELLER wills his ability to get the most out of the least amount of school work to whoever wants it. PHYLLIS NICHOLS would like to will Dolores Schindelholz her seat in typing room with the hope that she will be able to type every ten minutes time writing with not more than five errors. DOLORES PALKO wishes the best of luck to any person going through four full years of high school and to have as much fun as she has had. JULIE PALMQUIST wills her package of Aspergum to Mr. Ritter to be used the day after the night before in the celebration of getting rid of her. NOEL PERKINS wills all the troubles he had with his car to anyone who has the money to pay for them. DALE SELZER wills his trig. book to the next sucker who takes trig. HEROLD SHAW wills his place kicking ability to Bob Kozel, next year's co-captain. NANCY SHELTON wills to Evelyne Eldredge the ability to get off her feet and jump while playing basketball. LOIS SNYDER leaves her enthusiasm and interest for bowling and basketball to any girl who needs it. JIM STEFAN wills his out of date civics book to anyone who keeps up with world affairs. STUART STIFFLER wills his aptitude in mathematics to anyone unfortunate enough to accept it. NAOMI THOMAS wills her position as typist on the Medinamite staff to anyone who in the future years, is going to take journalism. STEVE VERES wills his boots to anyone who sees fit to use them. LILLIAN WEST doesn't want to part with anything only she wishes the best of luck to any girl who is going to take two years of shorthand. EVELYN WEST wills her bookkeeping and all of the fun that she has in G. A. A. to any of the freshman girls. ED WHITE hereby wills his horn to Bucky Walter. HELEN ZABORSKIS wills her love of singing to some freshman and her love for baseball to Becky Young.

Ed Kungli: "Do you serve fish here?"
Cookie: "Certainly, we serve everyone."

R. Hall (in Chemistry Lab): "What's that strange odor?"
Susie: "Fresh air. Somebody opened the window."

Ed White: "What grade did you get on your final exam?"
Barb: "I believe that grades are very personal, and should not be revealed to anyone under any circumstances."
Ed: "Too bad. I failed too."

Leonard: "But, I don't think I deserve quite a zero on this paper."
Mr. Smith: "Neither do I, but it's the lowest mark I can give."

Mr. Ritter: "How many fingers have you?"
Bob Pelton: "Ten."
Mr. Ritter: "Well, if four were missing, what would you have then?"
Bob: "No music-lessons."

Mr. Demuth: "Every day, we breathe oxygen. What do we breathe at night, Harry?"
Harry: "Nitrogen."

"Now, I want my son, Dave, to have a thorough, modern, up-to-date education," said his mother, "including Latin."
"Yes, of course", said Mr. Claggett, "though Latin is, as you know, a dead language!"
"Well, all the better! Dave's going to be an undertaker."

Mary Kay: "Did you notice how my voice filled the hall last night?"
Miss Strock: "Yes, Mary Kay, in fact, I noticed several people leaving to make room for it."

Mr. Rudes: "Leo, where was the Declaration Of Independence signed?"
Leo: "At the bottom, I guess."

Mrs. Kellogg: "Now, George, what did Caesar exclaim, when Brutis stabbed him?"
George: "Ouch!"

Ed Kolvereid: "I eat my peas with honey,
I have done it all my life;
They do taste kind of funny,
But it keeps them on the knife."

Ed White: "As a beauty, I am a star,
There are others more handsome by far;
But my face—I don't mind it,
For I am behind it.
It's the people in front that I jar."

ODE TO UPPER CLASSMEN

You can tell a freshman
By his silly, eager look;
You can tell a sophomore
'Cause he carries one less book;
You can tell a junior
By his dashing air, and such.
You can tell a senior
But, boy, you can't tell him much.

Mr. Rudes: "And what happened in 1812?"
Herald: "Why — er — ah — Lincoln was three years old?"

Mr. Hollinger: "Every time I have a cup of tea, I get a stabbing pain in my right eye. What shall I do?"
Mr. Salisbury: "Take the spoon out of the cup."

Mr. Claggett: "Yes, I'll give you a job sweeping and keeping the place clean."
Mr. Dague: "But, I'm a college graduate!"
Mr. Claggett: "Oh! Well, then, you'd better start on something simpler."
